Panels & Projectors

An advert to all passing trade, telling people what you do and reflecting the quality of your business. Often seen 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The investment in signage can greatly affect the success of a business:

- particularly in attracting people through the door
- Supporting other marketing activities, giving focus to location and brand image

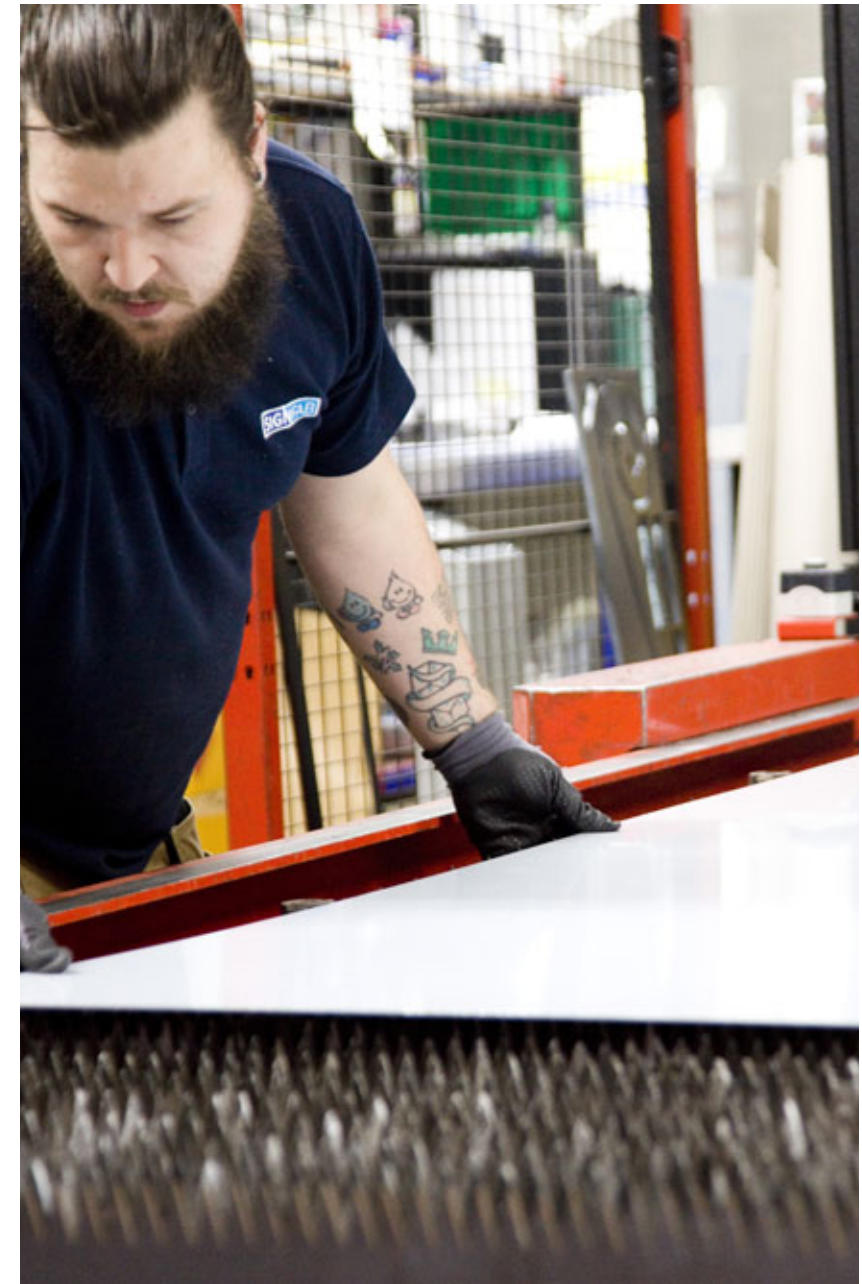

Simple constructions can allow for clear brand identification.

Projecting signs are popular with fast food outlets, coffee shops and high street retailers.

A huge variety of materials and design options are available.
